From the Rabbi's Desk

A though it is a pious wish of the State of Israel that all Jews consider living within its boundaries, even enthusiastic Zionists would admit certain realities. Firstly, not all Jews will make aliyah until the messiah comes and secondly, we are needed in various parts of the world for many reasons. The Moroccan Arabs have often said that the special flavor and charm of their country suffered a blow with the mass exodus of their Jewish population.

I must confess to a certain sadness and nostalgia myself whenever I return to North Africa, as I did recently, because I was first there as a child of ten years old in 1947, and over the years in the '60s and '70s there were still over a quarter of a million Jews there. The synagogues and yeshivot were flourishing and all this glory was too suddenly ended with the mass emigration mainly to Israel, Canada and France with others coming to the U.S.A. and other countries. Today there are approximately 5,000 Jews left in the area, mostly in Casablanca, with some few hundreds in other cities.

Perhaps one should not be overwhelmingly sad, however, because the situation is by no means comparable to the tragedy of Eastern and Central European Jewry, where our people were exterminated. The Jews of Morocco, Tunisia and Algeria left of their own volition and their strong traditions live on in their new homes. I was heartened by the large number of Israeli tourists I met and, of course, former residents come back from France even for a long weekend (after all it is like us going to Florida as far as flight time is concerned).

From the Chairman

It is hard to believe that I am writing you for the third Rosh Hashanah as your Chairman of the Board. Never have I had a more rewarding volunteer experience working for an institution that has the power to make each of its members' lives more meaningful.

The theme of our year, "The Spark Within Us," has caused me to reflect on the spark within me, trying to understand what my Judaism means to me.

I hope that all of you will consider doing the same. Then take advantage of the many opportunities you will be given in the fall to express for yourself and for the generations of your family that will follow the role Judaism plays in defining who you are. Plan to participate in our two weeks of Mitzvot in Elul programs, or be a part of Zion Ozeri's workshop guiding us to express ourselves through photographs, or be there as Rabbi Elana Zaiman gives us the tools to write an ethical will. I hope you will also use the next few months to join the "Great Synagogue Read-In, Year 2," and read Judea Pearl's book, I Am Jewish: Personal

Reflections Inspired by the Last Words of Daniel Pearl. Then mark your calendar to be in attendance at the Museum of Jewish Heritage on December 8 when Judea Pearl addresses our congregation.

All that lies ahead follows a most incredible summer here at P.A.S. Walking tours of Manhattan, a film series in the Rothschild Library, and evenings of learning with four simultaneous classes followed by coffee and cookies filled the summer months. Congregants from birth to age 100 passed through our doors. It is great to see our Synagogue being a 12-month-of-the-year destination.

Soon we will celebrate Rosh Hashanah for the year 5766. I hope you will make the decision to do one more thing at Park Avenue Synagogue than you did last year.

Together, we are the present and future of Judaism. Please let your Synagogue be the address you come to as you take your Jewish journey.

I wish you all a sweet, happy and meaningful New Year.

Chairman

account of the number of the families left; perhaps there are some 250 individuals who are augmented each Shabbat by many tourists. Morocco is, of course, an Arab country but, nevertheless, very many Israelis come to visit and they are welcomed. There was a group of Israeli young people we came across who were participating in a youth international sports festival marching with an Israeli flag.

Essaouira is a beautiful little port about two hours' drive from Marrakech. At one time some 80 percent of the population had been Jews, with at least 32 synagogues and just a very few mosques. Today there are only a handful of Jews left, with no minyan as far as we could tell. This town is a place of pilgrimage, however, and I remember seeing notices in the kosher shops in ...being with one's co-religionists in their ancient lands gave me a special feeling of excitement and of belonging to a remarkable people.

Montreal of trips to pray at the grave of Rabbi Chaim Pinto, a great Saint who died a few hundred years ago. We, naturally, went there this time to join with some Israelis reading psalms at the gravesite. Praying at the graves of Zaddikim or Saints is very important to Moroccan Jews, and the countryside is dotted with such tombs often in almost inaccessible areas.

One day we set out into the mountains of the High Atlas to the Oureka valley. This area is inhabited by Berber tribes who do not speak Arabic for the most part, but instead a language unrelated. Many centuries ago some of the Berber tribes adopted Judaism long before the advent of Islam. It would be true to say that this particular community went in their entirety to Israel. They spoke neither Arabic nor French, and had little contact with their better-educated brothers and sisters, largely of Spanish Sephardic origin, in the big cities. I think that we met perhaps the last such Jew – an old man who looked after the grave of yet another great Rabbi, Shlomo Ben Hensh, in the mountainous region.

Moroccan Jewry traditionally has been hospitable, and a warm welcome was accorded us everywhere. We were even asked to stay a few more days for a bar mitzvah in Marrakech. The young man read the Torah on Monday morning just as we do in our minyan. Another family invited us to come for the bat mitzvah of their daughter in Paris.

Visits to anywhere are usually uplifting and educational, but being with one's co-religionists in their ancient lands gave my sons and me a special feeling of excitement and of belonging to a remarkable people.

Park Avenue Synagogue Happenings

Be Part of Mitzvot in Elul

As Jews we are called upon to act and make the world a better place. What better time for us to do this as a community than the month of Elul, the final month of the Jewish year, traditionally a time of introspection and communal preparation for the Days of Awe? The P.A.S. Arms, Schools and Tikkun Olam Committee have developed projects on varying days and at varying times during the weeks leading up to Selihot and Rosh Hashanah so that everyone can find a convenient time to engage in meaningful acts to give back to N.Y.C. Most projects are open to all congregants of every age regardless of the sponsoring Arm or School:

- September 11: Join with the Tikkun Olam Committee to clean up Carl Schurz Park.
- September 13: Join with WEG to make friendly calls to homebound elderly (see page 6).
- September 20: Join with the Young Couples Group to read bedtime stories to children in a shelter (see page 6).
- September 22: Join with the Tikkun Olam Committee to assemble & distribute food packages to the hungry.
- September 13-29: Join with The Congregational School to:
 - Work in the Food Pantry
 - Visit Jewish Home & Hospital residents
 - Collect school supplies for P.S. 198
 - Make Rosh Hashanah cards for the elderly
- September 25: Join with the Men's Club to clean up a cemetery OR
- September 25: Join with the High School & WEG to deliver apples & honey to homebound elderly (see page 6).

- All of September: Join with the Men's Club to get a ride/offer a ride to visit a cemetery.

For complete project details and registration information, look for the Mitzvot in Elul Guide in the mail, go to www.pasyn.org, or call Sarah Gribetz, ext. 142. And come to Selihot on September 24 to hear Rabbi Shai Held speak about Mitzvot in Elul.

Don't Miss the 2nd Annual Great Synagogue Read-In

In his book "I Am Jewish," Judea Pearl compiles writings of a diverse group of Jews, from the famous to the not so famous. Each writes about the Jewish

"spark" within him or her, what is unique about his or her Jewish experience and how Judaism gives meaning to one's life.

Who wrote these words?

"I remember how proud I was on my trip to Jerusalem with my brother a few years back. Seeing all of the street signs in Hebrew, feeling a sense of identity and belonging. We wandered no more...."

- a) Rabbi Lawrence Hoffman
- b) Larry King
- c) Ruth Bader Ginsburg
- d) Daniel Liebskind

Answer: Larry King

To learn more about Judea Pearl's book, join us in our 2nd Annual "Great Synagogue Read-In":

1. Buy "I Am Jewish"
2. Read "I Am Jewish"
3. Watch your emails and P.A.S. correspondence for programs in the coming months related to "I Am Jewish"
4. Plan on joining us on December 8 at our celebration of The Spark Within Us at the Museum of Jewish Heritage in Battery Park when we welcome Judea Pearl to address our congregation.

Be a Congregational Singer & Help Bring in the New Year

This year, for the first time, the Congregational Singers will participate in the erev Rosh Hashanah service in the Sanctuary, Monday evening, October 3. Together with Cantors David Lefkowitz and Nancy Abramson, and the High Holy Days Choir, all under the direction of Neil Robinson, the Congregational Singers will help lead the congregation in song and prayer.

The Congregational Singers are P.A.S. members (High School students and adults) who enjoy singing Jewish choral music. New singers are welcome: Rehearsing for and participating in the erev Rosh Hashanah service will help you prepare spiritually for the High Holy Days and offers an opportunity to learn and perform some of the most glorious music of our heritage. Rehearsals for the Rosh Hashanah eve service will take place on Tuesday, September 13, 7:00 pm - 8:30 pm; Tuesday, September 20, 6:30 pm - 8:00 pm; and Tuesday, September 27, 6:30 pm - 8:00 pm. Tapes of the music will be available. Participants must commit to all of the rehearsals.

Please contact Cantor Lefkowitz or Cantor Abramson to participate in the erev Rosh Hashanah service or for more information

Bimah Basics

Congratulations to those members who have received an honor and will participate in the upcoming High Holy Days services. So that you derive as much nachas from this experience as possible, be it a p'ticha (Ark opening), aliyah (Torah blessing), hagbahah (lifting the Torah) or gelilah (dressing the Torah), you are invited to attend one or two workshops where you will have the opportunity to rehearse your High Holy Days role. Please join Rabbi Stern on Wednesday, September 28 at 8:00 am or 8:00 pm.

P.A.S. Funds Three J.T.S. Scholarships

P. A.S. members generously ensured that the J.T.S. Garden Party last May 10, chaired by Laurie Davidowitz, Carol Kekst, David Parker, and Wendy Slavin, reached its goal of underwriting three scholarships for J.T.S. students: the Rabbinical School, the H.L. Miller Cantorial School, and the Davidson Graduate School of Jewish Education. Nicole Guzik spoke about how scholarship support has made it possible for her to attend rabbinical school at J.T.S. and the musical program by cantorial students, guided by Cantor David Lefkowitz, was a lovely highlight of the evening. ☆

In Celebration of the High Holy Days

Selihot Program & Service

Before the High Holy Days it is customary to study and pray late at night to feel closer to God. To raise your Jewish consciousness for the coming days, come to our Selihot lecture and service on Saturday, September 24 at 8:30 pm. The guest speaker will be Rabbi Shai Held.

Rosh Hashanah

Rosh Hashanah is both a solemn and a festive occasion. Its joy is spiritually disciplined by the sacred traditions of home and synagogue. Although the observance of the High Holy Days is centered in the synagogue, it is in the home where family members prepare to meet the New Year in a spirit of faith and in a mood conducive to prayer and soul-searching.

White is thought of as the color that symbolizes purity and joy. Thus, the table is set with a white tablecloth and flowers, candles and wine. Round hallot symbolizing a full round year, and apples and a dish of honey for a sweet year, complete the symbolic representations on the holiday table.

The family gathers together for the lighting of the candles and Kiddush, which precede the festive meal on both nights of Rosh Hashanah. The following blessings are recited over the candles:

Barukh Atah Adonai Eloheinu Melekh Haolam, asher kideshanu bemitzvotav vetzivanu lehadlik ner shel Yom Tov.

Blessed are You, O Lord our God, King of the Universe, whose mitzvot add holiness to our lives, and who gave us the mitzvah to kindle light for the Festival.

Barukh Atah Adonai Eloheinu Melekh Haolam, sheheheyenu vekiyemanu vehigyanu lazman hazeh.

Blessed are You, O Lord our God, King of the Universe, who has kept us in life, preserved us, and enabled us to reach this season.

After the Rosh Hashanah Kiddush, the Motzi is recited over the round hallah:

Barukh Atah Adonai Eloheinu Melekh Haolam, hamotzi lehem min ha-aretz.

Blessed are You, O Lord our God, King of the Universe, who brings forth bread from the earth.

Then all the members of the family dip the apple in honey and recite the following blessing and prayer:

Yehi ratzon milefanekhah Adonai Eloheinu v'Elohei avoteinu, shetehadesh aleynnu shanah tovah umetukah.

May it be Thy Will, O Lord our God, to renew unto us a happy and sweet New Year.

After the morning services of Rosh Hashanah, a festive meal is also eaten, preceded by daytime Kiddush and the Motzi:

Tiku vahodesh shofar, bakeseh l'yom hagenu, kihok l'Yisraelhu, mishpat l'Elohey Yaaqov.

Barukh Atah Adonai Eloheinu Melekh Haolam, borei pri hagafen.

The greeting on Rosh Hashanah is L'Shanah Tovah Tikatavu – May you be inscribed for a good year. ☆

Arms' Programs & Events

WEG: Moonbeams Rosh Hodesh Study and Discussion

Moonbeams, a program of Women's Evening Group, meets every month on or near Rosh Hodesh, the first day of the Jewish month, at the home of one of the participants. The group invites women of all ages and interest to join in this social and text-based discussion group, which this year continues its exploration of "What Is 613?" Come on September 6, 7:30 pm – 9:00 pm, to enjoy refreshments, one another, and a far-ranging and engaging discussion. For location and other information, please call Joann Rosoff, (212) 348-4531, or Joan Scheffler, (212) 734-0444.

Sisterhood: Daytime Book Discussion Group

The Daytime Book Discussion Group will hold its first session of the fall on Monday, September 12 at 11:00 am in the Rothschild Library. Come have coffee and cake and discuss I Am Jewish: Personal Reflections Inspired by the Last Words of Daniel Pearl, edited by Judea and Ruth Pearl, the book chosen for the 2nd Annual Great Synagogue Read-In. The Daytime Book Discussion Group is open to all members of P.A.S. Call Renee Waldinger, (212) 860-4308, for a complete reading list. Even if you don't plan to become a member of this group, feel free to drop in to discuss "I Am Jewish."

Sisterhood: Study Jewish Thought and Practice with Rabbi Stern

On Tuesday, September 13 at 11:00 am, sample the first session of Tuesday Topics with Rabbi Kenneth Stern, enjoy some coffee and cake, watch a portion of a filmed interview with Abraham Joshua Heschel, and join in the discussion. This course, which meets every Tuesday at 11:00 am in the Rothschild Library, is open to all men and women at P.A.S. The discussions cover Jewish thought and practices; reading assignments, currently from Jewish Thought Today edited by Louis Jacobs, are short. This fall and winter, we will be discussing noted Jewish figures such as Mordecai Kaplan, Martin Buber and Heschel.

Sisterhood: Come Schmooze With the Yiddish Club

Even if your Yiddish is rusty, don't hesitate to join the Yiddish Club of P.A.S., which will meet on Tuesday, September 13 at 1:00 pm in the Rothschild Library. This club focuses on Yiddish conversation, but will also discuss Yiddish culture, screen a film, or present a speaker. Coffee and cake will be served. All are welcome.

WEG: Join Us for Mitzvot in Elul

The Woman's Evening Group invites P.A.S. members to join them on Tuesday, September 13, 6:00 pm – 9:00 pm at Dorot Headquarters, 171 West 85 Street, to make friendly calls to homebound elderly people, and on Sunday, September 25, to take Rosh Hashanah packages of apples and honey to homebound elderly. Please call Paula Bernstein, (212) 348 4868, or Linda Klempner, (212) 744 0234, to sign up.

Young Couples Group: Cocktail Party Meet & Greet

Please join us for a cocktail party at the home of Sheri and Cliff Bleustein on Wednesday, September 14 at 7:30 pm. This is a great opportunity to meet new and returning Young Couples Group members and hear how to be a part of the synagogue community. For address information and to R.S.V.P., please contact Jan Gilman at 917-945-0250 or jansgilman@yahoo.com.

Sisterhood: Learn About the Jews of Early New York

On Thursday, September 15 at 2:00 pm, the Sisterhood of P.A.S. and the Metropolitan Branch of the Women's League for Conservative Judaism are sponsoring a guided tour of the acclaimed exhibition, "Tolerance and Identity: Jews in Early New York 1654 – 1825," at the Museum of the City of New York, 103rd Street and Fifth Avenue. Meet the Sisterhood/Met Branch group in the lobby.

WEG: Dinner & Learning

All WEG members are invited to a dairy pot-luck dinner on September 19 at 6:30 pm and to hear Rabbi Kenneth Stern discuss "Reading Between the Lines: A Different Perspective" on the 2nd Annual Great Synagogue Read-In selection, "I Am Jewish." The book can be purchased at the Synagogue office. Please R.S.V.P. to Susan Lerner, (212) 734-1732, as space is limited.

Young Couples Group: Mitzvot in Elul Activity

The Young Couples Group is sponsoring a visit to the West End Intergenerational Residence (83rd Street and West End Avenue) to read bedtime stories to children on Tuesday, September 20, 6:15 pm - 7:15 pm. This project is open to all adults and their teen-aged children. Participants are asked to bring a new or gently used children's book. Reservations are required. For more information or to R.S.V.P., please contact Ahou Abroon at gasoomekh@hotmail.com.

Sisterhood: The Glorious History of Spanish Jewry

On Tuesday, September 27 at 1:00 pm, join Sisterhood for a light lunch and a showing and discussion of the documentary film, Sunlight and Shadow: The Golden Age of Jewish Jewry. In the film, Dr. Gerson Cohen, a noted historian, takes the audience on a tour of the great centers of Spanish civilization, where such figures as Judah Halevi and Moses Maimonides left a legacy of science, philosophy, medicine, mathematics, and literature. All are welcome. ☆

September B'nai Mitzvah

Abigail Smul

September 10, 2005

Abigail Smul will celebrate her Bat Mitzvah on September 10. She will be reading Parsha Shoftim and the fourth Haftorah of Consolation following Tisha B'Av. Abigail, or Abbe to her friends, began her Jewish education at P.A.S. Early Childhood Center. This September, she continues her studies in the Hebrew High School. Abigail is an eighth-grade student at the Dalton School, where she competes on the Middle School volleyball and softball teams. She is also active in Dalton's Middle School government.

As part of her Congregational School activities, Abigail prepared and served meals at a food pantry. Abigail is also participating in Operation Mazal Tov, a project created by the Masorti Foundation to help fund Bar/Bat Mitzvah training for Israeli children with special needs.

Abigail thanks the clergy and her teachers for their guidance, enthusiasm and careful timing that allowed her to enjoy her summer at camp, only weeks before her Bat Mitzvah.

Joshua-Marc Bennett Tanenbaum

September 17, 2005

Josh, an eighth grader, attends the Abraham Joshua Heschel School – a place that has special meaning for him. His father, Rabbi Marc Tanenbaum, of blessed memory, worked closely with the late Rabbi Heschel on the Civil Rights Movement, Vatican Council II and other pressing issues.

One of Josh's notable qualities is his generosity of spirit, whether it's caring for an injured bunkmate at camp or serving Thanksgiving dinner to refugees. He's a long-time donor to the International Rescue Committee and Handgun Control, and volunteers for B'nai Jeshurun's homeless program.

Josh, who has a special way with animals, apprentices with a veterinarian. He also helps out at the Tanenbaum Center for Interreligious Understanding and moonlights as a reporter for a school newspaper. He is an avid participant in team sports and an expert rollerblader.

His Shabbat Parsha, Ki Teitzei, expounds on rules of responsibility and human relations.

Leigh Colvin

September 24, 2005

Leigh Colvin has been embraced by P.A.S. since her naming in the Chapel, and attended the Congregational

School since kindergarten. An eighth grader at Trinity School, Leigh's favorite subjects are math, Latin and English. Leigh is a member of the tennis and basketball teams and the Principal's Advisory Council. She attends Camp Kenwood and loves to travel, especially to ski with her family.

Last December, Leigh became a Bat Mitzvah in Israel with P.A.S. classmates and Israeli students. Another highlight was a visit to a Joint Distribution Committee-supported community center that integrated Ethiopian women and children into Israeli life. Leigh's photograph of that experience was featured in Rayonot. Leigh will contribute to that J.D.C. program, and walk to raise money for diabetes research on the Sunday before she becomes a Bat Mitzvah, something she has done since 2001.

Leigh is grateful to her inspiring P.A.S. teachers for the preparation she received for her Bat Mitzvah. ☆

"The spark within me is just having been born a Jew. This synagogue has served me my entire life. My parents were members. I was named here, went to the Hebrew School, was confirmed and then later married here. I ran the gift shop. Just being Jewish has sustained me."

—Helen Hahn, as told to Sarah Gribetz, on her 100th birthday, July 12, 2005

Edmond de Rothschild Library

by Rabbi Dawn Rose

This September the Rothschild Library is hitting the ground running with three great programs:

- Women on the Verge..., after a blockbuster year taught by Renee Ghert-Zand, this class will return as a Library program taught by Rabbi Dawn Rose. This dynamic learning group for women meets every Wednesday at 12:30 pm beginning on September 7 ((except in October and on 12/21, 12/28, 2/22, 4/12, 4/19).
- Taste of Torah, also taught by Rabbi Rose, is a Torah parsha-of-the-week discussion class. The focus is on women and everyone is welcome. By popular demand, this class will now meet twice monthly, beginning on Thursday September 8, at 7:00 pm.
- Storytelling, the much-loved special time for children ages 3-5, returns every Thursday, 5:30 pm -6:00 pm, beginning September 8.

We at the Rothschild wish each and everyone a New Year of Meaning, Learning, Joy, and Health. ✡

"I never thought I'd connect so strongly with my infant over Jewish music!"

PEOPLE ARE TALKING ABOUT HAMISHPACHAH SHELI (MY FAMILY)...

SIGN UP TODAY!

For ages infant - 3 years with a parent. The next semester begins September 12. Please call the Park Avenue Synagogue Family Education Office at 212.369.2600 x142 for more information.

"Our toddler loves class, and marches around singing 'Torah, Torah' everyday!"
